1. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

The Quran is a complete and original compilation of the final revelation from Allah to mankind through the last prophet of Islam, Hazrat Muhammad (Sm). The Quran has essentially three qualities that have made it universal and great. Firstly, in its original Arabic form, it is a master –piece of immense literary value fusing the style of presentation with the substance being presented in a blend of unique proportion. Secondly though its message is a continuation of that contained in the earlier revelations made to prophet Abraham, David, Moses, and Jesus, this message has a sense of fulfilment and originality that attracts to it Jews, Christians and Muslims alike. Finally it has a wealth of information ---both worldly wisdom and intellectual conception ---which provides the code of life for mankind generally and Muslims in particular. Indeed, the greatness of the Quran lies in its ability to offer at least something to non-believers and everything to believers (Muslims). So, it is called the greatest scripture.
